Mike, yes, I will accept service of a subpoena by email for my client Rick Singer to appear at the September 13, 2021, trial before Judge Gorton.¹ Don

1. You know in my almost 52 year career, you were the second lawyer who refused to grant a short continuance on a motion, in this matter to quash. Civility and professionalism is not weakness, and procedural game playing on matters that are almost automatic in the course of litigation is generally scorned by established professionals. So agreeing to accept service of a trial subpoena in this matter is intended to avoid wasting time and money in you obtaining a court order for a U.S. Marshal to service my client and clear does not reflect ignoring our only interaction in this matter.

Don,

We would like to serve a subpoena for Rick Singer to appear to testify in the trial before Judge Gorton in September. Can you let us know, preferably today, if you will accept service of the subpoena by email to you, or if we have to serve him in hand.

Thanks for your cooperation.

Mike
